DCCC's third season of cultural events brings you the best in music, theater and art in an exciting series.

February 11, 1995, 7:30^{PM}
Rebecca and Robert Bluestone

Presenting Rebecca's artistry in weaving and Robert's mastery on the Classical Guitar!

"...an enormous amount of exceptional talent - Robert Bluestone", Albuquerque Journal

"Under Rebecca's hand, a traditional craft, weaving, matures to a fine art." -

Northwest Art Center - Minot State University.
 They both will conduct a three day residency.

April 23, 1995, 3:00^{PM}
The Wichita Symphony

With guest soloist - David Perry - Concertmaster.
 "Widely recognized as one of the finest orchestras in the United States, celebrated 50 years of making music for the people of Kansas during its 1993-94 season."

"These programs are presented in part by grants from the Kansas Arts Commission, a state agency; and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency."

DCCC's third season of cultural events brings you the best in music, theater and art in an exciting series.

September 11, 1994, 3:00^{PM}
"Petticoat President"

With Toni Gillman as Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, "The First Women President of the United States" (New York Times) and Gordon Davis as Woodrow Wilson.

This brilliant new three-character play reveals one of the greatest love stories of all time—shocking, tender, outrageously funny!

November 12, 1994, 7:30^{PM}
"Side By Side Piano Duo"
Eric Street and Linda Newfield

"Delicate sense of programming and musicianship..." They performed six concerts in Cairo and Alexander, Egypt in the Spring of 1994 and during June and July toured Europe performing in Austria, Germany and France.
